Safety Commitment: Parents/guardians, please note that we take responsibility for our own children's safety throughout the weekend. FMC does not provide official childcare workers for this retreat. Also, since it is an intergenerational, community-building event, attendees (adult and youth) must commit to abstaining from the use of alcohol/illegal drugs.

In addition to these basic expectations, on our first day together we will have a community meeting and discuss how we can all ensure a safe and fun weekend for all.
